HOW TO USE THIS CHECKLIST

You don’t need 20 subscriptions. You need these 5 tools.

Every tool has its own page with a link, three first steps to tick off and a starter prompt to copy.

My tip: take on one tool per day. In one week your setup is ready.

01	ChatGPT	Texts, emails, proposals	chatgpt.com
02	Gemini Notebook	Understand documents	notebook.google
03	Canva	Design for posts & proposals	canva.com
04	MailerLite	Email list & newsletter	mailerlite.com
05	Calendly	Let clients book online	calendly.com

> Good to know: All five tools have a free version (checked in October 2026). Free plan limits can change. Take a quick look at the pricing page when you sign up.

TEXTS & IDEAS

ChatGPT

↗ chatgpt.com

Your writing assistant for emails, proposals, posts and ideas.

Free version: yes, with limits on file uploads and images.

YOUR FIRST 3 STEPS

1. Create a free account at chatgpt.com. ☐
2. In settings under “Personalization”, enter who you are, who you work for and how you write. ☐
3. Test the starter prompt below with a real email from your inbox. ☐

STARTER PROMPT

TO COPY

“You are my assistant and write in my style: [warm, informal, short]. Here is an email: [paste email, anonymise names]. My goal: [suggest a meeting / decline politely / state my price]. Write me two replies: a normal one (max. 120 words) and an extra short one (max. 40 words).”

Hanna’s tip

“Don’t enter sensitive client data. Simply replace names and numbers with placeholders.”

UNDERSTAND DOCUMENTS

Gemini Notebook

↗ notebook.google

Formerly NotebookLM. Upload PDFs, documents or websites and ask questions. The answers come only from your sources, with citations.

Free version: yes, standard version for personal projects (up to 50 sources per notebook).

YOUR FIRST 3 STEPS

1. Sign in at notebook.google with your Google account. ☐
2. Create a new notebook and add a source, e.g. a proposal, a study or course material. ☐
3. Ask the starter prompt or let it create an audio overview. ☐

STARTER PROMPT

TO COPY

"Summarise the five most important points of this document in simple words. Then give me three questions I should ask [my client / myself] about it, and where in the document the answer is."

Hanna's tip

"Perfect before every client call: ten minutes of reading instead of an hour of flicking through pages."

DESIGN

Canva

↗ canva.com

Templates for Instagram posts, proposals, presentations and flyers. No design degree needed.

Free version: Canva Free, €0, including a brand kit with 3 colours.

YOUR FIRST 3 STEPS

1. Create a free account at canva.com. ☐
2. Set your 3 brand colours in the brand kit. ☐
3. Search for an “Instagram post” template, adapt it with your colours and texts and save it. ☐

STARTER PROMPT (FOR CHATGPT)

>
> “Write me five short headlines (max. six words) for an Instagram post about [topic] for [target group]. Add a subline of max. twelve words to each.”

Hanna’s tip

“One template used again and again looks more professional than a new design every time.”

04

NEWSLETTER

MailerLite

↗ mailerlite.com

Your own email list. Unlike Instagram, it belongs to you.

Free version: yes, up to 250 subscribers and 2,500 emails per month.

YOUR FIRST 3 STEPS

1. Create an account at mailerlite.com and set up a group, e.g. “Newsletter”. ☐
2. Create a signup form, switch on double opt-in and embed it on your website. ☐
3. Create a “Welcome email” automation that goes out automatically after signup. ☐

STARTER PROMPT (FOR CHATGPT)

>
> “Write me a short welcome email for new subscribers to my newsletter. I am a [profession] and I help [target group] with [topic]. Tone: warm, informal, max. 120 words. End with a question people can reply to.”

Hanna’s tip

“Think about your legal notice, privacy policy and data processing agreement before you start.”

05

APPOINTMENTS

Calendly

↗ calendly.com

Clients see your free slots and book themselves. No more email ping-pong.

Free version: yes, with one event type and one connected calendar.

YOUR FIRST 3 STEPS

1. Create an account at calendly.com and connect your calendar. ☐
2. Create an event type, e.g. “Free intro call, 30 min”, and set your availability. ☐
3. Put the booking link in your Instagram bio and your email signature. ☐

STARTER PROMPT (FOR CHATGPT)

>
> “Write me a short description (max. 60 words) for my event ‘Free intro call’. I am a [profession]. Say what the person will know afterwards and how they can prepare.”

Hanna’s tip

“Plan buffers between appointments. Fifteen minutes is enough so you don’t rush from call to call.”

DONE

Your setup is ready. Now what?

Tools alone don’t save time. What matters is which tasks you give them and in which order.

That’s exactly what I help solopreneurs with: less routine, more time for what really matters.
